

“Love Your Enemies”
Transforming
“Us vs. Them”
Thinking
Building peace with Iran

Rev. Louis Vitale, OFM

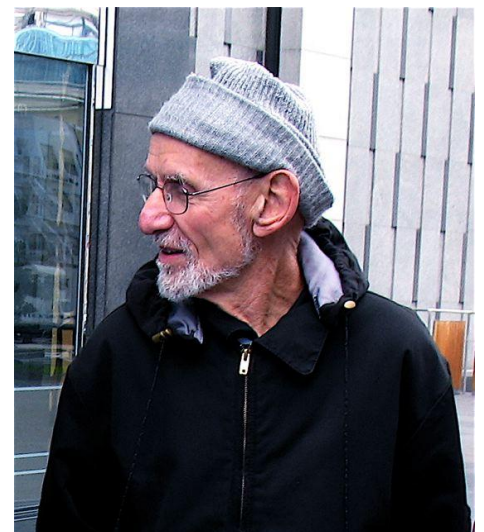

Tuesday, April 21 ~ 7:00 P.M. ~ The Canticle
841-13th Ave. N., Clinton

Franciscan Friar Louie Vitale, a recent Pax Christi Teacher of Peace Award winner, just returned from Tehran on a special diplomacy for peace mission with the Fellowship of Reconciliation. He will discuss ~ the importance of dialoguing with our enemies instead of warring against them and the need for morality in our foreign policy.

Resumé

Retired Air Force officer
Active in the United Farm Workers Movement
Counseling draft resisters during the Vietnam War
Working on nationwide welfare rights campaigns
Serving with human rights delegations in the 1980s in El Salvador,
Nicaragua, Honduras and Guatemala, Protesting torture and the teaching of torture at the School of the Americas and at Fort Huachuca, Arizona.
Co-founder of the Nevada Desert Experience,
Co-founder of Pace e Bene Nonviolence Service
Recipient of: 2006 Jefferson Award for community service
Global Exchange Human Rights Award
2006 St. Thomas More Society Award

Free and open to the public

SPONSORED BY: The Clinton Franciscan Center for Active Nonviolence and Peacemaking and Prince of Peace Pax Christi
Driving directions to The Canticle