1. Equipment Needed:

- Laptop or Smartphone:
    - Use a laptop or smartphone to run the game.
  - Projector or TV:
    - The game must be projected onto a wall or displayed on a TV screen so that all participants can see.
  - HDMI Cable or Wireless Streaming Device:
    - Connect your laptop or smartphone to the projector or TV using an HDMI cable or a wireless streaming device like Chromecast, Apple TV, etc.
  - Stable Internet Connection:
    - Ensure your device has a stable internet connection to access the game website.
  - Table for Contestants:
    - Set up a table with seating for contestants during each of the three rounds.
  - Buzzer System or Signaling Device:
    - Provide a method for contestants to signal when they know the answer. This could be physical buzzers, raising hands, or a simple noise-making device.

2. Game Setup:

Step 1: Access the Game Website

- Open the game website on your laptop or smartphone:
<https://clintonfranciscans.com/campaign-nonviolence-jeopardy>.
- Ensure that the device is connected to the internet and that the game screen is visible on the laptop or smartphone.

Step 2: Connect to Projector or TV

- Connect your device to a projector or TV using an HDMI cable or a wireless streaming device.
- Adjust the display settings on your device so that the game screen is clearly visible to the entire group.

Step 3: Set Up Contestants' Table

- Arrange a table at the front of the room with seating for contestants.
- Make sure there is enough space for participants to comfortably see the screen and interact with the host.

Step 4: Prepare Signaling Devices

- Distribute signaling devices to each contestant. These can be physical buzzers, hand signals, or simple noise-making devices like a bell or a whistle.

3. Running the Game:

Step 1: Assign Roles

- Host:
  - The host is responsible for reading the questions aloud, calling on contestants who signal, and confirming answers.
  - The host should also manage the flow of the game, ensuring all contestants have a fair chance to participate.
- Assistant (optional):
  - An assistant can help reveal the answers on the computer or phone and manage the technical aspects of the game.

Step 2: Start the Game

- Begin by allowing the first contestant to choose a category and dollar amount.
- The host reads the question aloud as it is revealed on the screen.

Step 3: Contestants Signal

- Contestants signal when they think they know the answer.
- The host calls on the contestant who signaled first to provide their answer.

Step 4: Reveal the Answer

- The host or assistant reveals the correct answer on the computer or phone.
- If the contestant's answer is correct, they earn the dollar amount for that question. If incorrect, another contestant may have the opportunity to answer, depending on your house rules.

Step 5: Continue the Game

- The contestant who answered correctly chooses the next category and dollar amount.
- The host or assistant then reveals the next question, and the game continues.

4. Game Flow and Management Tips:

- Pacing:
    - Keep the game moving at a steady pace to maintain engagement.
  - Fair Play:
    - Ensure all contestants have an equal opportunity to participate.
  - Audience Engagement:
    - Encourage the audience to cheer and support the contestants.
  - Tie-Breakers:
    - Have a plan for handling tie situations, such as a final question or a quick quiz.

5. Concluding the Game:

- Final Scores:
    - Announce the final scores and congratulate all contestants for their participation.
  - Prizes (optional):
    - Consider awarding small prizes to the winning contestant or participants.
